18. These registrations¹ are valid, subsisting, in full force and effect, and have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065.

19. The registration of the marks constitutes prima facie evidence of their validity and conclusive evidence of Coach's exclusive right to use the Coach Trademarks in connection with the goods identified therein and other commercial goods.

¹ All registrations originally held in the name of Coach's predecessors, Sara Lee Corporation and Saramar Corporation, were assigned in full to Coach on or about October 2, 2000. This is not intended to be an exhaustive listing of Coach's trademarks.

20. The registration of the marks also provides sufficient notice to Defendants of Coach's ownership and exclusive rights in the Coach Trademarks.

21. The Coach Trademarks qualify as famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125 (c)(1).

22. The Coach Trademarks have been continuously used and have never been abandoned.

23. As a result of extensive use and promotion, the Coach Trademarks have acquired a favorable reputation to consumers as an identifier and symbol of Coach and its products, services, and goodwill. Accordingly, Coach is the owner of broad common-law and federal trademark rights in the Coach Trademarks.

The Coach Trade Dress

24. Coach is the owner of a variety of unique and distinctive trade dresses consisting of a combination of one or more features, including sizes, shapes, colors, designs, fabrics, hardware, hangtags, stitching patterns and other non-functional elements comprising the overall look and feel incorporated into Coach products (the "Coach Trade Dresses").

25. Consumers immediately identify Coach as the single source of high quality products bearing the Coach Trade Dresses.

26. The Coach Trade Dresses associated with Coach products are independent of the functional aspects of Coach products.

27. Coach has employed the Coach Trade Dresses associated with its products exclusively and without interruption, and the Coach Trade Dresses have never been abandoned.

Copyrights

28. Many of the decorative and artistic combinations of the design elements present on Coach products are independently protected works under the United States Copyright Laws. These design elements are wholly original works and fixed in various tangible products and media, thereby qualifying as copyrightable subject matter under the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. Sections 101 et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the “Coach Design Elements”).

29. Coach also has a variety of valid copyrights registered with the Copyright Office for its Design Elements, including the Horse and Carriage Design, with registration number VA 1-714-051.

30. At all times relevant hereto, Coach has been the sole owner and proprietor of all rights, title, and interest in and to the copyrights in the Coach Design Elements used on Coach products, and such copyrights are valid, subsisting and in full force and effect.

Defendants’ Acts of Infringement and Unfair Competition

31. Upon information and belief, Defendants are engaged in designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale products bearing logos and source-identifying indicia and design elements that are studied imitations of the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and the Coach Design Elements (hereinafter referred to as the “Infringing Products”). Defendants’ specific conduct includes, among other things:

32. Defendants offer for sale counterfeit Coach cell phone cases at their kiosk as an enticement to attract potential customers to their business.

33. On or about August 23, 2010, an investigator of the firm Investigation Services Company (hereinafter, “ISC”) approached a kiosk, identified as Cellular Planet, within Parkdale Mall, and noticed trademarked cellular phone cases on display. The investigator paid $15.99 for the cell phone case, for a total of $17.31 with tax.

34. The cell phone case is a counterfeit Coach product.

35. As of the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants continue to offer for sale several different colors and styles of counterfeit Coach cell phone cases.

36. Defendants are not, and never have been, an authorized retailer of Coach merchandise.

37. Defendants, SM Associates, LLC, Saeed Ahmed Memon and Abdul Latif Magsi contribute to these infringing acts by allowing Defendant Cellular Planet to display, distribute, and offer for sale counterfeit Coach products at its kiosk.

Further, Defendants, SM Associates, LLC, Saeed Ahmed Memon and Abdul Latif Magsi had an obligation and ability to control and stop these infringements, but failed to do so. Indeed, Defendants, SM Associates, LLC, Saeed Ahmed Memon and Abdul Latif Magsi did not want the infringement to stop as, upon information and belief, they received direct financial benefits from the infringement. These acts and failure to act by Defendants, SM Associates, LLC, Saeed Ahmed Memon and Abdul Latif Magsi materially contributed to the infringement.

39. All of the Defendants are well aware of the extraordinary fame and strength of the Coach Brand, the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Marks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and the Coach Design Elements, and the incalculable goodwill associated therewith.

40. Defendants have no license, authority, or other permission from Coach to use any of the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Marks, the Coach Trade Dresses, or the Coach Design Elements in connection with the designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale of the Infringing Products.

41. Defendants have been engaging in the above-described illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Coach's rights, or with bad faith, for the purpose of trading on the goodwill and reputation of the Coach Marks and Coach products.

42. Defendants' activities, as described above, are likely to create a false impression and deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing that there is a connection or association between the Infringing Products and Coach.

43. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue to design, manufacture, advertise, promote, import, distribute, sell, and/or offer for sale the Infringing Products, unless otherwise restrained.

44. Coach is suffering irreparable injury, has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' activities, and has no adequate remedy at law.

and the trade into believing that Defendants' Infringing Products are genuine or authorized products of Coach.

48. Upon information and belief, Defendants have acted with knowledge of Coach's ownership of the Coach Trademarks and with deliberate intention or willful blindness to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill inherent in the Coach Marks.

49. Defendants' acts constitute trademark counterfeiting in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1114).

50. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

68. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

69. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT IV
(False Designation of Origin and False Advertising, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

70. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-69.

71. Defendants' promotion, advertising, distribution, sale, and/or offering for sale of the Infringing Products, together with Defendants' use of other indicia associated with Coach is intended, and is likely to confuse, mislead, or deceive consumers, the public, and the trade as to the origin, source, sponsorship, or affiliation of the Infringing Products, and is intended, and is likely to cause such parties to believe in error that the Infringing Products have been authorized, sponsored, approved, endorsed or licensed by Coach, or that Defendants are in some way affiliated with Coach.

72. The foregoing acts of Defendants constitute a false designation of origin, and false and misleading descriptions and representations of fact, all in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)).

73. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.
